Alumni Spotlight

George Marostica, proud alumnus from 1953 and 1955 and former instructor, has left quite a lasting legacy at Oregon Tech. As a student on the original campus in Klamath Falls, he was the first alumnus to be recruited to return as an instructor. George taught machining for over 50 years at the university and several of his relatives have since graduated from Oregon Tech as well. After a life spent in service to the Happy #GivingTuesday!

Today is the day! All donations up to $1,000 will be doubled!

In grateful appreciation of the growing culture of philanthropy at Oregon Tech, President Nagi Naganathan and his wife, Kasturi, have once again made a generous matching gift challenge of $10,000 for #GivingTuesday! New this year--a group of loyal Oregon Tech alumni have also contributed an additional $15,000 towards the matching opportunity giving a total of $25,000 in matching funds!

All gifts will be matched today 1:1 up to $1000 per donation and be designated to the activities and initiatives at Oregon Tech that YOU desire to support.

Visit oit.edu/Tuesday to double your impact today!

Submit Your Photo Today!

Alumni are invited to submit a photo for our holiday photo contest. Each submission will be featured on our social media pages and in the January newsletter. Everyone who enters will receive an alumni branded gift and the current Marketing cohort of students at Oregon Tech will be choosing 3 top winners for extra prizes!

Get all the details by clicking HERE and submit your best pic before Dec. 9, 2020!

ALUMNI BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

As we celebrate the holidays this month, we invite you to consider supporting alumni-owned businesses. The online business directory features a wide variety of options including wineries, financial services, energy efficiency companies, personalized gifts, metalworks and more.

Visit the directory HERE and to get added to the list, email rebecca.burkeen@oit.edu.
