Congratulations to the Oregon Tech Class of 2020!

We are so proud of this new group of graduates and welcome them into our alumni community with open arms. Thanks to everyone who submitted videos for the new grads. You can also post messages of congrats on our Facebook page!

If you are interested in serving as a mentor for new grads, please email rebecca.burkeen@oit.edu.

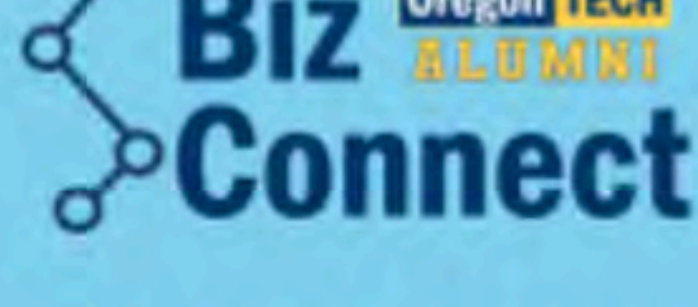

Also, be sure to join the Oregon Tech Alumni Association on LinkedIn and network with thousands of alumni!

VIRTUAL MEET THE AUTHOR EVENT!

Alumnus Chris Duffin '99 was the 2019 recipient of the Scientific Achievement Award at Oregon Tech for his innovative Kabuki Strength system. His autobiography has been the focus of our very first strength club. Haven't read the book? No problem! Alumni have the opportunity to meet Chris for a private Q&A session at our Meet the Author event on June 6, 2020. Learn about his book, his businesses and his background as a record-setting powerlifter.

This year's graduates will be the change-makers in what is now a changed world. Our mission at Oregon Tech remains strong though: to provide high-quality education that prepares students for careers that will make a difference in the world.

As the academic year comes to an close, you still have an opportunity to show your support this fiscal year. The effects of the coronavirus pandemic have impacted our Oregon Tech community in a variety of ways. If you are able, please consider making a gift and thank you for demonstrating that we are #OregonTechTogether!
